

KEEP CALM AND BE BRITISH!

Let's play a game of 'Put your hand up if.....'

Put your hand up if.....

- You have brown hair
- Wear glasses
- Have a brother or sister
- Like football
- Can speak another language
- You like swimming in the sea!
- Know what you want to be when you're older

All these things help make up your identity

So what else makes up your personal identity?

- Groups or clubs that you belong to - scouts, rugby, choir....
- What your interests or talents are - film, dance, speed stacking....
- What things are important to you.
- What your hopes are for the future.
- Which people are important to you.
- Your religion
- The languages that you speak.
- Which country you are from.

What you value also makes up part of who you are.

Time for another game - Let's play 'Thumbs up, Thumbs down'

I'm going to show you some words on the board - if you think that thing is important to you, if it is something you value, then give me a thumbs up - if not, it's thumbs down.

We have talked about personal values, but can a country have values?

We all live in Britain,
what do you think British values are?

We are going to be learning about British values

- democracy
- the rule of law
- individual freedom
- mutual respect
- tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs

We are going to be learning about
British values

- The rule of the law

In Britain we have a police force who make sure people do not do the wrong thing and break the law - this means that we are safe.

We are going to be learning about
British values

- Individual Freedom

In Britain, as long as we do not break the law, we can live as we choose to and have our own opinions about things.

Let's look at that list of British Values again:

- democracy
- the rule of law
- individual freedom
- mutual respect
- tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs

Take a moment to think about how lucky we are to live in Britain, a country with such strong values.
