

Books to help with kindness/ friendship/ diversity and being unique at home

These books are suggestions/ recommendations from a number of sources: Southampton Library service, PSHE association, Common Sense media, parents and staff. We have not read them all, so if you choose to use any of these it may be a good idea to borrow them from the library first to check that you are happy with the content. Some of these we do use in school and these have been highlighted.
